Catholic Trust for England & Wales (Levy)

Today the collection is for the above and is based on the income each Church has. The Bishops' Conference decide on the rate, we just pay up. The money is taken from our account by direct debit whether the collection raised enough money to cover it or not.

This time it is £400+!!!

We could be fund raising for a long time!

Fund Raising

Morrison's have allowed us to hold a tombola in their store on Friday 27th September in lieu of selling raffle tickets, which is no longer allowed. If you have any unwanted items we could use as prizes please let us have them before then so that we can get it all organised. Thank you. Also, if you could help on the day please let Sheila or me know. It won't last all day but we will need at least 3 people at a time. Thank you.

An old man is riding in a lift with two glamorous women. One woman takes a perfume bottle out of her bag and sprays her neck. She turns to the other woman and says, "Romance by Ralph Lauren, £150 an ounce." The other woman takes a perfume bottle out of her bag, sprays herself, and says, "Chanel No 5, £200 an ounce." The lift stops and the doors open. The old man steps out and breaks wind. As the doors close, he looks back and says, "Broccoli, 49p a pound."
