This is an international 8 day period of prayer which is observed annually. (the word octave meaning eight). This began on 18th January until 25th.

Mass Intentions

This week, Father Ed is away until Wednesday so there will be no morning Mass on Tuesday. Also, as the 10am service on Thursday at St Mary's is a Requiem Mass for John Smith and the 10am service on Friday at St Benedict's is a Requiem Mass for David Curwen, there will be no opportunity for Masses to be celebrated for any other intention this week. Any Mass intentions will be carried over until next week.

Sheila and I will be selling the squares at £1 each in the porch as usual and look forward to your ongoing support. Depending on how many we sell, we may carry it over until next Sunday.

A ventriloquist is telling blonde jokes in a bar when one of his audience, a young blonde lady, stands up and complains. "I've heard just about enough of your lousy blonde jokes!" she shouts "What makes you think you can stereotype women this way? What does a person's hair colour have to do with their intelligence?" The ventriloquist is very embarrassed and starts to apologise. The blonde interrupts, "Stay out of it, mister! I'm talking to the little fellow on your knee!"
