Wishing you all the joys of a happy and holy Easter

A Sincere Thank You

To all who have helped with our various liturgies of this past week; all who have helped with the decoration of our Easter Altar; to all who helped with the cleaning & to all who have taken part and in so doing helped our celebrations by your presence, both here and in St Benedict's.

Father Ed.

Foodbank

The items they are short of this week are - biscuits, UHT milk (not skimmed), tinned fruit, tinned rice pudding & UHT fruit juice. Please help if you can.

Thank You.

Little Lambs

Our Children's Liturgy Group will restart next Sunday, just meet at the back of Church. All children are more than welcome to join in with the scripture readings at their own level.

Easter Flowers

Thank you for your kind donations towards Easter flowers for the altar - £102.10 was raised.

Easter Offering

As is tradition, today's offertory is for the clergy.

First Holy Communion

The preparation for the children making their First Holy Communion recommences next Sunday at 9.15am in the presbytery.

A woman takes her dog to a grooming parlour for a trim. When she gets there, she's astonished to find that a grooming session will cost her £100. "That's ridiculous!" she exclaims, "I only pay £60 when I have my own hair done." "I'm sure you do," says the groomer, "but, then again, I'll bet you've never bitten your hairdresser."

Brendan Grufferty

Sheila Richardson was contacted recently by Brendan who wanted to send his best wishes to the parishioners of St Mary's, of whom he was very fond. He is well, happy and due to be married in July and is starting a new life at a school in China in August. Good Luck Brendan!

African Disaster Lenten Collection

Thank you so much for your most generous donations to help the people affected by the disaster - a total of £421.60 was collected.

PS Why do they say we're over the hill and why is it a bad thing?

When I go hiking and I get over the hill, that means I'm past the hard part & there's a snack in my future!
