Father John

Thank you for celebrating Mass here with us at St Mary's for the past 4 weeks. Hope you enjoyed your "holiday".

Father Ed

Welcome back Father, hope you had a good holiday. Back to reality I'm afraid!

Fund Raising

After our stint in Morrison's on Friday, we are continuing the tombola fund raising this morning in the porch. Please give your usual support. Thank You.

Family Fast Day

CAFOD Just one world invites us to eat a simple meal for lunch on Friday 4th October and give the money we save to help others less fortunate than ourselves. Envelopes are available in the porch, please take one and return it next Sunday. Please be generous. Thank You.

October Devotions

October is the month of the holy Rosary so this week, on Thursday, we will say the Rosary before Mass at 9.40am.

A Call To Action

A retreat themed "Christian Vocation – Loved, Called, Gifted, Empowered" is to be held on 19th October 10am-3pm in St Joseph's Church, Cockermouth. See the poster for more info. If you would like a lift – see Sheila R.

Food Bank

This week we are supporting the Harvest Appeal 2019. The special needs are: tinned fish, tinned ham, hot dogs, meat balls, dried pasta, tinned fruit, tinned vegetables, pasta sauce, tinned custard, tinned sponge pudding & jam (not homemade).

"It is not just about Migrants"

Today, Pope Francis will celebrate the 105th World Day of Migrants and Refugees with Mass. He asks us to join in with this celebration, themed as above. It is about all of us, our fears, our humanity, our shared desire to build a better world.

A man walks into a bar with a snake and orders two pints of beer. The beer is poured and the man starts happily sipping his drink. The snake is less happy; it has trouble getting a grip on the glass with its tail and soon drops it. The man orders a second pint but, as before, the snake finds it very difficult to get a grip on the slippery glass; it just about manages to lift the glass from the bar then suddenly drops it. The man orders a third pint for the snake who tries hard to pick up the glass but it smashes on to the floor. "I'm sorry, sir," says the barman, "but I can't serve you any more drink." "Why not?" ask the man. "It's the snake, sir," replies the barman, "he just can't hold his drink."

PS This morning I saw the milkman drinking a sip of milk before leaving it in front of my door. How dairy?!!
