Octave of Prayer for Christian Unity

This is an international 8-day period of prayer which is observed annually. The word octave meaning eight). This will begin on 18th January until 25th.

SPUC

There will be a retiring collection today to support the work of the Society for the Protection of Unborn Children.

Free!!

There are two diaries and a calendar on the table in the porch if anyone would like them – just help yourself.

There are also some baubles left over from our Advent Service that the children of St Mary's made – please help yourself.

Aid to the Church in Need

Sheila has asked me to let you know that the final total for parcels to children in Syria was £205. God Bless you all – Sheila R

Father Aelred

Father Aelred has now been transferred to a hospital nearer to where he lives.

Breaking News – Tooth Fairy Now Redundant!

Seriously Father, hope you've recovered from your ordeal.

A man goes into a hardware store and asks to buy a chainsaw. The shopkeeper sells him one that is guaranteed to fell even the largest tree in under a minute. The man takes it home but comes back the next day to complain. "A minute you said!" he says, "I started cutting down a tree yesterday lunchtime and by six in the evening I'd only managed to get half-way through the trunk." The shopkeeper apologises. "I'm sorry," he says, "perhaps the engine's air-to-fuel ratio is out of adjustment. I'll just check." So saying, he pulls the starter cord and the chainsaw roars into life. "Wow, what's that noise?" exclaims the startled man.

Thank you for your offerings last weekend that were as follows: Offertory: £257.50

No second collection last week

Second collection this week for the White Flower SPUC Appeal
